FORT WAYNE

INDIANA

VOL. 26

1925 ANNUAL

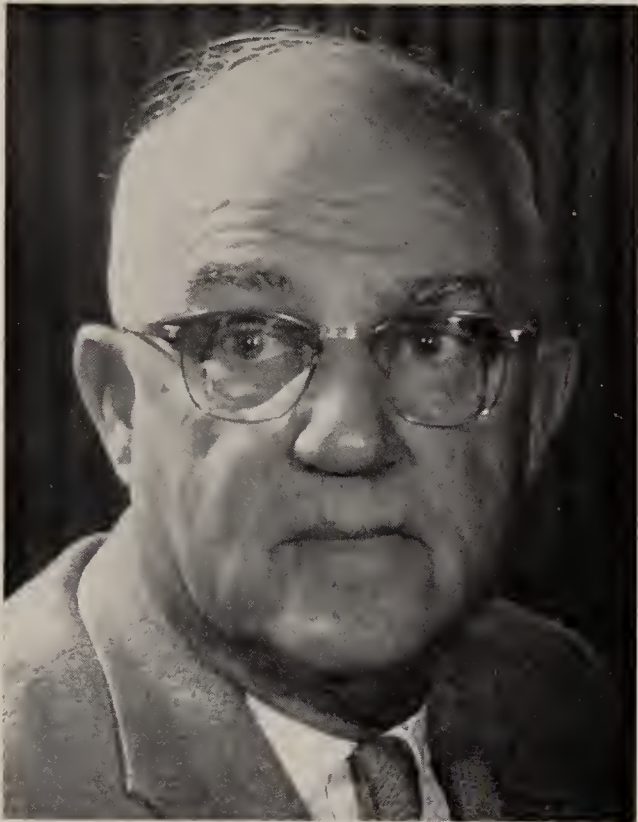

DRINK

It's June 8; the halls are quiet but still echoing with contrasting sights and sounds of the year: sleeping through Monday classes and fidgeting all day Friday—"Hey, Jim, I finally passed government!" "Lucky; I flunked."—dragging in in the morning and storming out to the buses at 3:11—"Oh, when did you get his ring?"—"Dad won't let me have the car until I raise my English grade."— Freshmen crawling in in September and breezing out in June. These examples are just a few of the many contrasts in our school life. There are many more forming the theme of this book.

Work and fun are the Annie Staff contrasts. Layout work is deadly serious; senior snaps are hilarious. The daily routine consists of endless trips to the drinking fountain with an occasional counting of senior names. Four days a week we figured ways to get the farthest from school on picture taking days and ended taking them in the parking lot.

Three weeks were spent on deciding the contrast for our exotic cover. Out of three fabulous designs, we chose not Russell's nor Wendell's but Dick's. After this exhausting exploit into designing, Wendell came through with an exquisite title page. And while Bob and Theron worked their phalanges to the marrow checking pictures and names, Jim read the names of our immensely satisfied subscribers to Russ who wrote them down. Jim Parr and company high-pressured 750 E.H.S students into purchasing a 1959 annual. Of 835 potential purchasers, 750 subscribers will receive our elegant Anlibrum, of which there is no equal from here to eternity.

We must admit, however, that the majority of the Annie Staff is girls. These adequately assembled forms of the human race busied themselves in various tasks such as comparing class rings, announcing the time, making pizza (at the party), and supplying the boys with gossip which they already knew but refrained from repeating. When Miss Falls entered, you might find them making props, identifying underclassmen, or even typing, a la Biblical method ("Seek and ye shall find!").

Finally, we mention our experienced counselor and sole controlling force, the Honorable Miss Letha A. Falls. (If you don't know her; you may find her in the hula-hoop on page 20.) She deserves much sympathy for enduring this year. We believe her to be the most wise and wonderful teacher at E.H.S.

And last of all, to the junior class, we say, "Don't try to put more than twelve senior pictures per page." In closing, Miss Falls has a few words to say about our editorializing. "Ahem!"

This Was Our Life

Friday afternoon is over. The halls have withstood another 3:11 rush of feet and the last buses, carrying happy teenagers to a two day vacation, have climbed the long slope in front of the school.

Entering the dim hall from the bright sunlight, we can still hear a slight echo of voices, "Hey, Jim! I passed soc." or "Gosh, Judy, he's a doll!!!"

These halls will be inactive for a short time until Monday morning when once again students and teachers will take up their positions. Maybe their steps will be slower; but as the week goes by, the pace will increase with the thought: "Friday is almost here."

In four years a lot of things have come and gone. We seniors have experienced many things. . . . Remember the year when we all stood by and cheered as Marilyn Mitchell twisted her way to fame? Her weapon was the hula hoop.

Our first year here, sayings like "dirty bird" crept into the daily conversation. . . . That year pink and black was the most . . . And Elmhurst went to the final game in the sectionals against South Side.

During our second year here, everybody liked Ike; or so the buttons said. Elvis hit overnight success and sent the girls wild, but our own Gary Schelton also made the big time when he recorded "Kissin' at the Drive-in." F. O. G. Day was initiated. In case you're not hep—this is Fraternal Order of Greasers. Girls dressed in old white shirts and levis; and the boys came in levis, motorcycle jackets, and boots.

The pixie hair cut entered the scene our junior year and became a well talked about item. Although few girls got them, a great many threatened to. Our heroes, the Rah Rah boys, derived a new attire for one of our famous presidents. Thomas Jefferson, a bust in room 212, really looked hep in his hat and mustache and earrings. . . . Crazy!! Although Jeff wasn't fortunate enough to wear a chemise, almost every girl at E. H. S. was sporting that latest fashion. I wonder if Mr. Sinks ever figured out the mystery of his daily letters. . . . Hmmm. A final memory which will always linger is the Prom. That seems to be a perfect closing for a perfect year.

At last we're "Seniors"! The thrill of moving into the senior home rooms, and then . . . they've been moved. . . . Tradition is broken. . . . Ah, well, fate dealt us a hand. We finished where we began—rooms 217, 219, 221. . . . Who knows, kids? Senior Alley may be the start of a new tradition. Not only did the powers change the rooms but also a few rules (much to our regret) . . . Remember these words, "No slacks will be allowed from now on" and also the accompanying groan of all the girls. This year brought about the craziest. . . . Think back to these things: Hula hoop, 49 stars in old glory, "play it cool," and, never to be forgotten, the words: "Take a half sheet of paper, please." The senior class cannot be outdone by their predecessors. Remember the Rah Rah Boys? Well, now cast your eyes upon the E. H. S. Dix-Neuf girls. We have to agree they've outdone their rivals. We are finding that the fastest and bestest year is our senior year. One final anticipation is Senior Day and then . . .

Commercial Club

The Commercial Club is made up of students taking typing, shorthand, or bookkeeping. Each student works for awards throughout the year. Special awards are given to the honor students in each commercial subject at the banquet held every spring. This year the club has had representatives from local business colleges and companies come to speak to the club on how to put our commercial courses to work.

Speech Club — N.F.L.

The Forum, commonly known as the Speech Club, has 30 members. Debate for the first time seems to have the edge as far as the number of meets attended.

A separate club, which works with the Forum, is N.F.L. or National Forensic League, an honorary national organization. To be eligible for N.F.L. you must belong to the Forum and have 25 points. Both the Forum and N.F.L. are sponsored by Mr. Brooks.

Projectionists

The Projectionists operated on a speeded up schedule this year with the purchase of a new Bell and Howell movie projector.

The qualifications for Projectionists are: being a male student with no failing grades and being able to pass a test over the operation of the movie projectors, the record player, and the slide projector.

There were thirty members this year, and each boy on the average showed one movie every eight school days. After showing fifty movies, a Projectionist receives a pin. After showing one hundred, he receives a letter; and every fifty after this he receives a chevron. Mr. Sinks' assistants were Lynn Scrogam and Jim Mize.

Hi-Y

Boys who are members of the Hi-Y Club have as their purpose "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character." As part of their program of service to the school and others, the Hi-Y boys planted bulbs in front of the school, assumed the duty and honor of raising and lowering the American flag on school days, checking coats at basketball games, and holding a car wash to raise money for Y.M.C.A.'s in foreign countries.

Dramatics

The school play for this year was a romantic comedy, The Rainmaker, directed by Mr. Don Goss. It was given by the dramatics class and other members of the student body. The performance was given two evenings in succession with a total attendance of five hundred. The cast is pictured at the right. The technicians for The Rainmaker were: Ron Martz, Jim Hill, Al Blanton, Ronnie Davis, Florence Tierney, and Sue Hackleman.

A Christmas play was also given; the cast was made up of dramatics class students and other students from last period classes. The play was written by Linda Wilson and directed by Annette Wilkie; sets were designed by Sue Hackleman. Lights were by Al Blanton and the sound effects, by Don Howard. The purpose of dramatics class is to teach students how to write and how to direct.

Football

"Football Comes to Elmhurst." This was one of the headlines announcing the addition of football to the Elmhurst sports curriculum. Mr. Elden Stoops was appointed as head football coach. Freshmen and sophomores were the only classmen that were allowed to participate since Elmhurst will not enter varsity competition until next year. The Elmhurst gridironers should have a winning season in two more seasons. The Trojans played three games; and due to inexperience, they lost all of them. These games were with South Side, Concordia, and New Haven.

Baseball

The Elmhurst Baseball Team completed the 1958-'59 baseball season with a record of six wins against two losses. The defeats came at the hands of Hoagland and Monroeville. The Men of Troy were coached by Mr. Douglass Spencer. This was the first season that Mr. Spencer coached the baseball team.

Elmhurst, Monroeville, and Harlan were co-champs in baseball in the A.C.A.C.

Russell Allison, James Parr, and Mike Scott provided the Trojans with fine mound strength. Russell Allison won five games while losing one. James Parr won one and lost one. Russell Allison faced 104 batters and struck out 45. James Parr faced 77 men and downed 16. Mike Scott faced 21 men.

The powerful slugging of the Trojans with the fine pitching combined to give Elmhurst the winning season. Mike Scott, John Bruner, and Don McLean were the leading batters with .524, .458, and .444 respectively. The Trojans as a team batted at a .309 clip this season. John Bruner and Russell Allison led in the R.B.I field with nine each.

Cross Country Team

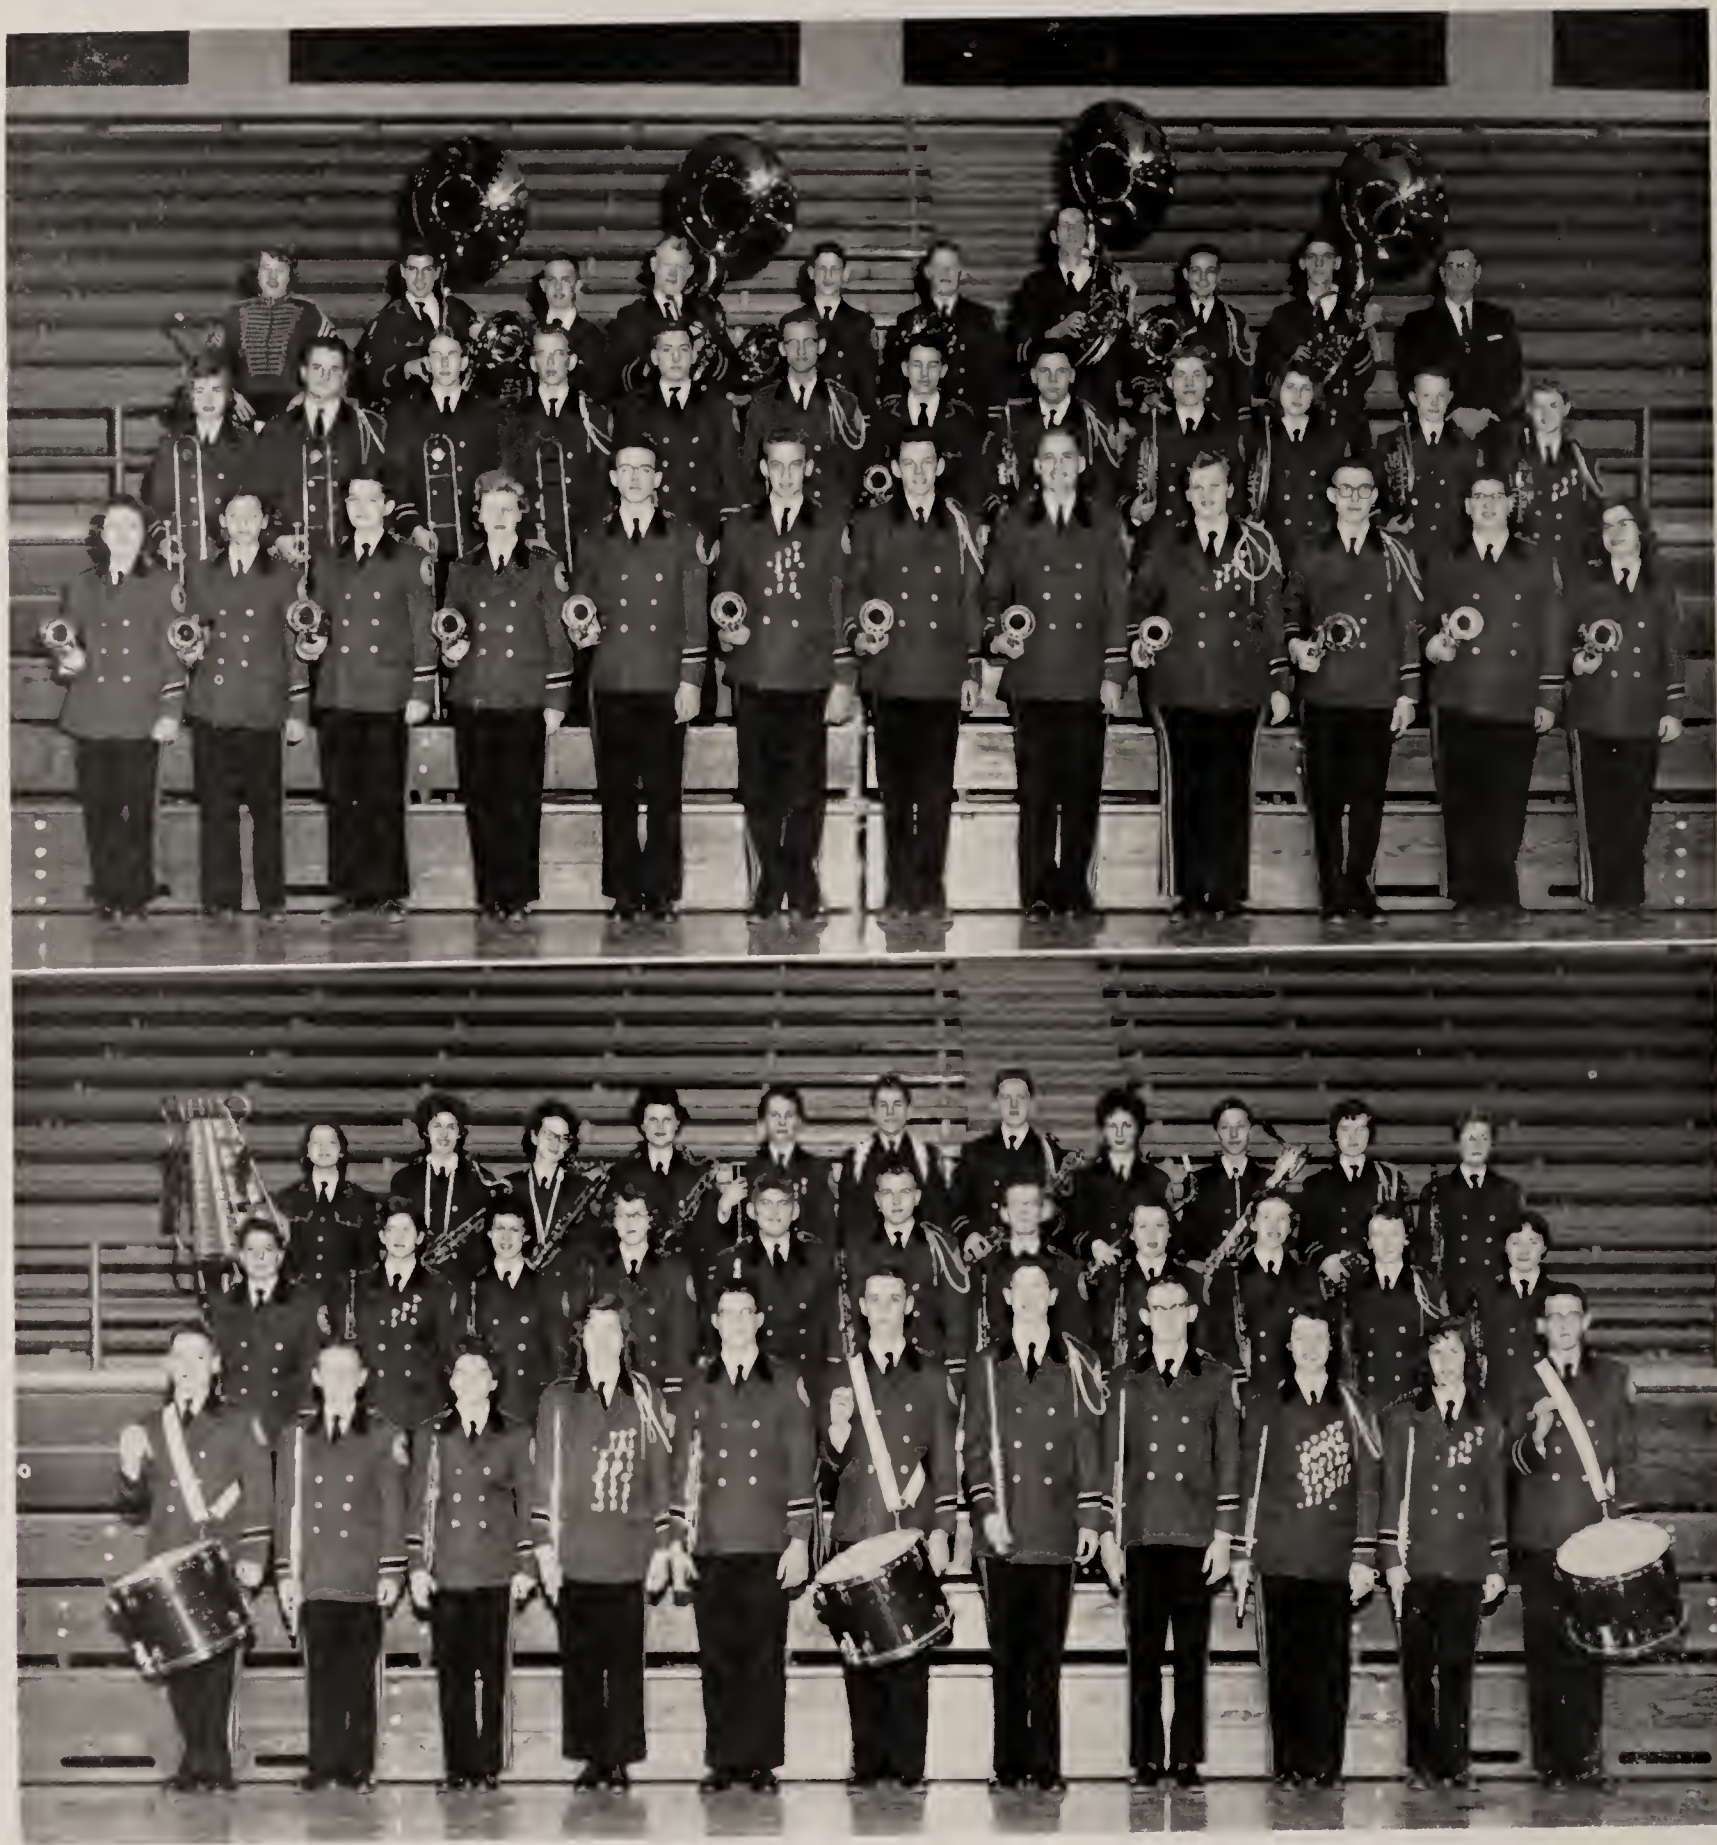

The Trojan Cross Country team had a successful season. They won 11 meets and lost 2 at the heels of South Side and Central. The Trojans were victorious against Arcola, Concordia, Monroeville, Leo, New Haven, Lafayette, Hoagland, Woodburn, Harlan, and Huntertown.

The Trojans won the Allen County Athletic Conference cross country championship and placed fifth in the sectional. For the second consecutive year, Dan Weaver paced the Trojans, traveling the 2-mile course in 10:05 and setting a new country record.

Reserve Season

The Elmhurst Reserve basketball team compiled a record of 6 wins and 10 losses. However, they established a higher season offensive average than their opponents. The Trojans' offensive mark was 34.4 while their opponents was 32.6. The Trojans hit .475 from the charity strip while their opponents hit .527. The Trojans made one more field goal than their opponents. Fox with 99 and Stevenson with 86 were the leading scorers. Twenty-three players scored and 12 broke into double figures. McKeeman had the highest game average with 10.6 for 6 games.

Varsity Season

The Elmhurst Trojans completed their basketball season with a record of 7 wins against 14 losses for an average of .333. For the first time in three years six men broke into triple figures. Although the record is not very impressive, Elmhurst did have several high points. We defeated the county champs, New Haven, in a thrilling overtime battle. We also looked very impressive against the defending state champs, South Side, when they downed us 50 to 41. Don McLean, junior guard, led the Trojans in all fields excepting rebounding. He led in field goal percentage, free throw percentage, and most points scored. Russell Allison was second in all these fields, very close to Don. Jack Griffith and Don Waldrop led in rebounding. The team hit .330 from the field and .584 from the free throw lane. They averaged 51.76 points per game to their opponents 56.57 points a game. The opponents out shot the Trojans from the field and the lane very narrowly with a .356 and .587 respectively.
